

'COMPASSION AND CARE'
Local chiropractor excited about move to new office. B1

TALKING GROWTH: Joint OJRSA board, county council meeting today. A2
DEADLY STABBINGS: Canadian police hunt for suspects after 10 killed. D1

County council set to vote on $1.5M industrial park request

Oconee officials signal confidence in filling park

BY RILEY MORNINGSTAR
THE JOURNAL

WALHALLA — After the county's economic development director recently said he was committed to transforming the Golden Corner Commerce Park (GCCP), Oconee County Council will decide whether to spend $1.5 million for the work.

The big-ticket agenda item, which will be voted on near the end of council's meeting at 6 p.m. tonight in council chambers at 415 S. Pine St., asks the county to commit $1.5 million to clear and grade land, with the money to be "combined with other grant funds that exceed the requested county funding, to be made available to Oconee County for this project in the near future." The phrasing of the sentence in the meeting agenda offers a window into the county's confidence it will be suc-

SEE COUNCIL, PAGE A6

CLEMSON FOOTBALL

Building to a roar

After slow start, Tigers pull away to top GT in season opener

Clemson defensive end K.J. Henry reacts after taking down Georgia Tech wide receiver Malachi Carter during the Tigers' 41-10 season-opening win over the Yellow Jackets at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta on Monday. Despite a sluggish start, the Tigers reeled off 27 unanswered second-half points to pull away for the win after Georgia Tech cut the deficit to 14-10 in the third quarter. Clemson will be in action for the second time this week when Furman visits Memorial Stadium on Saturday for the Tigers' home opener. For more coverage of Monday night's game, turn to page C1.

CALEB GILBERT | THE JOURNAL

SENECA

ANDREA KELLEY | THE JOURNAL

Runners take off for the start of the fifth annual Connecting the Green Dots Labor Day 5K in Seneca on Monday morning. Nearly 100 participants joined in the race, which serves as a fundraiser for nonprofit A Call to Action Oconee.

Running for a cause

Annual Labor Day 5K raises money for domestic violence prevention nonprofit

BY ANDREA KELLEY
THE JOURNAL

SENECA — Fifty-seven — that's how many people died in domestic violence incidents in South Carolina during the most recently recorded year, and exactly how many white crosses were standing in the Norton Thompson Park lawn on a drizzly morning Monday.

Almost 100 people gathered at the park to run the Connecting the Green Dots Labor Day 5K, hosted by A Call to Action Oconee.

The nonprofit provides resources for people experiencing

SEE VIOLENCE, PAGE A5

DO YOU NEED HELP?

Use these resources for domestic violence prevention, intervention, treatment and training:
Safe Harbor 24/7 crisis line: 1-800-291-2139
The Restoring Integrity Project: (864) 774-0028
Oconee County Sheriff's Office: (864) 638-4111
Seneca Police Department: (864) 885-2730

WALHALLA

Apple Fest section in today's Journal

THE JOURNAL STAFF

WESTMINSTER — The 61st annual South Carolina Apple Festival is now in full swing.

To celebrate the return of in-person festivities after a pause last year, every edition of today's Journal contains a special 24-page section about the event.

Readers will find a full slate of events to prepare for — along with information on the mouth-watering apple baking contest and more about musical entertainment. There's also a story about Sara

SEE FEST, PAGE A5

INSIDE

CALENDAR	A2	ENTERTAINMENT	B4	SPORTS	C1
CLASSIFIEDS	D2	LIFESTYLE	B1	TELL WILLIE	B5
COLUMNISTS	B3	OBITUARIES	B2	WORLD NATION	D1
COMICS	B3	OPINION	A4

INFO

DELIVERY	(864) 882-2375
CLASSIFIEDS	(864) 882-2375
ADVERTISING	(864) 973-6305

WILLIE SAYS:
Sometimes politics is interesting. B5

Agile, active and accommodating.
The 2022 GLB 250 SUV

CARLTON MOTORCARS
www.CarltonMB.com
(864) 213-8000

2446 Laurens Road
Greenville, SC 29607